

There will be a Squadron Leadership School as part of the Professional Development Weekend.

Date: 1-2 April 2006

Location: March Air Reserve Base, Building 441, Room 12

Cost: $20.00

Purpose: Squadron Leadership School (SLS) helps develop a general understanding of the basic functions of a CAP squadron. The SLS is designed to: (1) enhance a Senior Member's performance at the squadron level. It is designed to aid the CAP member in obtaining the basic knowledge necessary to carry out the CAP mission at the squadron level and (2) to increase understanding of squadron operations.

Participant Requirement: The Senior Member must have completed Level I/CPPT and be currently enrolled in one or more specialty tracks.

Location: March Air Reserve Base, Moreno Valley, CA.
Base Education Center, Building 441, Room 12

Housing: on base housing (billeting) is available. Deadline to request housing is 1 March 06.

Food: BBQ lunch both Saturday and Sunday, $5.00/lunch. Saturday evening dinner at King Chinese Buffet, about $10.00/person.

Uniform of the Day: AF blues (must meet weight and grooming standards) or CAP Corporate white aviator shirt/gray slacks.

To Register: contact the Project Officer, LtCol Jessica Black at Jessica.Black@March.af.mil
Registration deadline is 15 March 06.

Please mail a CAPF17, Application for Senior Member Activities, signed by your unit commander to the Project Officer, LtCol Jessica Black

Address: LtCol Jessica Black
24856 Sunday Drive
Moreno Valley, CA 92557

LtCol Black will email instructions and directions to March ARB and the Education Center.
